KPTC -- IN THE BEGINNING..

In 1991, the Kiwanis New York District Foundation, agreed to form an alliance with the North Shore University Hospital in Manhasset, Long Island, NY to create the Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Center (KPTC), then the only one of its kind in the region. In 2013, North Shore-LIJ Health System (now Northwell Health) relocated their acute in-patient pediatric services to Cohen Children's Medical Center which is dedicated exclusively to the care of children and is committed to providing the most sophisticated, state-of-the-art care in all clinical areas. In 2018 KPTC also formed an alliance with Stony Brook Children's Hospital in Stony Brook, NY.

COHEN CHILDREN'S MEDICAL CENTER

KPTC - OUR MISSION:

To work with and support Level 1 pediatric trauma center hospitals in the Long Island, New York area, specifically Cohen Children's Hospital and Stony Brook Children's Hospital. This is the highest level trauma designation by the New York State Department of Health, after meeting the rigorous standards of the American College of Surgeons (ACS).
